The Global Partnership for Social Accountability (GPSA) is a coalition of donors, governments and civil society organizations (CSOs) that aims to improve development results by supporting capacity building for enhanced citizen feedback and participation. The GPSA will contribute to country-level governance reforms and improved service delivery. To achieve this objective, the GPSA provides strategic and sustained support to CSOs' social accountability initiatives aimed at strengthening transparency and accountability.

The GPSA is pleased to announce its First Global Call for Proposals. In Mozambique, the GPSA seeks proposals on Social Accountability from Civil Society Organizations to do one of the following:

- ⇒ Monitor and report on the subnational transfers linked to the exploration and exploitation of the extractive industries, particularly in the regions of Nampula, Tete, and Cabo Delgado, to ensure the efficient allocation of resources.
- ⇒ Monitor and report on the allocation of decentralized resources for -- and/or the quality of -- service provision in the health or education sectors.
- ⇒ Strengthen institutional capacity of CSOs working on Social Accountability.

Proposals may focus on one or more of the above mentioned priority areas.

GPSA Funding Modalities

- Social Accountability Initiatives and Programs.
- Mentoring and capacity-building of nascent CSO, including on-granting. These proposals must be submitted by CSOs with proven track record on social accountability, that are legal entities in one of the "opted-in" countries and the activities should take place in one of these countries.
- Strengthening Institutional Capacity of CSOs working on SAcc.

Grants can support:

- Up to 100% of project's total cost.
- Up to 50% of total organization budget.
- Projects with an estimated duration of 3 to 5 years.
